MANY WAYS TO SPEAK

There are many ways to speak you put in the work to be unique shouting is for the weak / my friends are the highlight of my week
There are many ways to speak

this is my favorite day of the week this café makes my week my every thought a silent shriek I use a letterboard like a geek
There are many ways to speak

you and I are that unique it's not your place to critique your communication is unique it makes my imagination pique
There are many ways to speak

I will not always be neat
I am on a good streak I'm not strong, I'm not weak / why not use a letterboard and be unique
There are many ways to speak

I have a lot of things to say
I want nothing less than a full bouquet I think today's a holiday speaking's a vocal ricochet
I have a lot of things to say truth will unfold today come on and follow my way I am hoping for better days with your strength I'll not dismay

I have a lot of things to say

I pray for no more decay
I hope your grade will be an "A"
I can listen for days but you are in my way
I have a lot of things to say

you don't know what I have to say / how nice to get away on holiday a lot of things are gray but it is listening that pays
I have a lot of things to say

I have a lot of things to say
