

AS I WANDER TOWARD THE HORIZON

~Chris Martin & The Spellerverse 4-29-22

I eat olives and bread

...It has dearly cost me my mind

It is every expansive
It is taking me to infinite realms
It is bringing me ecstasy
It is bringing me dreams
It is bringing me means
It is bringing me great heights
It is Bringing love to our intriguing minds
It is bringing me comfort and peace

It's bringing me my voice

I put rewards to poets who spell.

It is bringing Motormorphosis!
It is bringing me closer to you

...I am no longer alone with my thoughts
...I find solace in the distance

Friendship and Great Love

As I wander towards the horizon I see a tall handsome man who is me in my other life.
It is bringing the true nature of each non speaker.

It's bringing me my voice

It is bringing me gifts of life's promise

Friendship and Great Love

Bringing peace for Ukraine, Russia, Eritrea and North Korea.

I walk away from disordered anxiety to face clarity of mind and soul
Search for more time in each day

...It is calling me brother.

It is bringing friendship to all

Real seeing there reaching

Purpose and meaning which allow peace in the universe

Great hues of violet exploding in my mind remembering beauty in my life

...I chase the hazy blue of things as-yet unseen.

Love kissing beauty that is helping me there yes yes

Lightness and friendship
